DEATH OF A LITTLE BOY.

The little two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sals, died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was laid to rest in the city cemetery this afternoon at 4 o'clock. They have the sympathy of all in their deep affliction.

Bible Eating.

I am told by a lady resident that in the Hampshire parish in which I am writing there is living at the present time a good woman who once ate a New Testament, day by day and leaf by leaf, between two slices of bread and butter, as a remedy for fits. This was treating the Bible as a fetish with a vengeance.—London Notes and Queries.

His Left.

"I may have reminded a trifle late, but her remarks were too pointed." "What did she say, Verdy?" "Told me their lease was about to expire."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Originator of Stein- Bloch Clothes

Nathan Stein began making clothing when sixteen years old. At sixty he was making better and finer garments than any man in America.

He passed out at eighty, the supreme past master of his craft, yet always a worker, always a learner. He has imitators, but no competitors.

Nathan Stein was the modern day prophet of garments he made art, thought and style.

The Stein-Bloch lengthened shadow of Nathan Stein. He lifted the business of making ready-to-wear clothing out of the realm of the booth and the bazaar, and placed it beyond haggle and barter.

He made it a matter of friend supplying friend with exquisite garments at a fair price.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

The services on Sunday will be as follows: Holy communion 7:30, Sunday school 9:45, Morning prayer and sermon 11 a. m. Subject of sermon—"Self or Christ; Which is It?" Mr. J. D. Gaster will sing a solo for the offertory at this service. Evening prayer and sermon 7:30 p. m. Subject—"No Vision, No People." Matins will be read daily at 9 o'clock except Monday. All Saints' Day, when there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at this hour. Litany at 7:30, Wednesday night; at this service the first instruction on English Church History will be given, and it is earnestly hoped that a good number will avail themselves of the opportunity of learning more about the church to which they have professed allegiance. Your attention is especially called to the fact that a Bible class will commence its study next Sunday, along with the Sunday school. The Rector will conduct this work and will arrange a course that will be of sufficient interest to justify the presence of every adult member of the Parish. It is for men and women. The purpose of said class will be to examine the construction, contents, and teachings of "The Divine Library." Let us remember "That Heaven and Earth Shall Pass Away, but My Word Shall Not Pass Away."

Rally Day at the Christian Church.

The officers have requested that we make Sunday a great Rally Day. The season of the year has come when we should come with renewed zeal and consecration.

Sunday school begins at 9:45. If you have not been in the habit of attending these services, begin now.

The great rally is at the 11 o'clock service. Every member is urged to be present. Special music will be furnished by Miss Ferguson of Bloomington, Ill., who is visiting with Mrs. R. M. Wilson. The subject of the sermon will be "Jesus of Nazareth Pas-seth By."

The night service will be at 7:30. The church should always remember this service. A hearty welcome is extended to all.

James N. Thomas, Pastor.
